

SUMMARY OF MY PROFILE

Olusegun H. Olugbile is the President of Global Network for Cybersolution which focuses on cybersecurity, anti-cybercrime strategy and cyberspace governance. In this capacity, Segun is representing the non-government sector in the National Cybercrime Advisory Council, Presidency. Segun is currently on 2nd term membership of UN-Internet Governance Forum Multi-stakeholders Advisory Group (since 2014 till date), coordinator of Communication & Outreach Working group of the IGF, member Africa Union IGF, West African IGF, and Nigeria IGF.

He is the lead Policy Architect on the National Cybersecurity Policy & Strategy (2013- (2015), Nigeria Police CERT project(2010-2013), Coordinator Cybersecurity Nigeria (2014-2015) and member board of Directors, Center for Corruption Studies, (Federal) University of Abuja Nigeria (2015), and member of Ministerial technical steering committee on Open Government Partnership. Segun is an expert in providing multi-stakeholders driven technology intervention, policy advisory and strategic insight in the implementation for key public institutions with over 15years of diversified ICT engagement. Segun graduated from the University of Ibadan and the Federal University of Technology, Owerri Nigeria in Computer/ Information Technology, He is a recipient of National IT Champion Award, (2009) by WITSA-ITAN-CPN, Office of National Security Adviser's Recognition Award (2014), and a registered member of Information Technology Association of Nigeria (ITAN) and Nigeria Internet Registration Association.